FOREIGN NEWS.

England, Ireland and France.

PARIS, Oct. 9.—A meeting of the members of the extreme Left of the Assembly was held to-day, the session of which was very inharmonious. Among those present were M. M. Gambetta, Creminant and Challenel Lacour. A number of letters from various provinces were read, expressing strong aversion to the establishment of the Monarchy, an aversion which is daily increasing. Gambetta declared he felt not the least anxiety concerning the permanency of the Republic. He was certain the proposition to establish a Monarchy could not obtain the vote of the majority of the Assembly.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—A Paris telegram to the Times states that Theirs intends to publicly advocate the prolongation of the term of the McMahon as President, thus depriving the Monarchists of the support of the Left Center, and probably precipitating dissension among the Monarchical coalition.

The report that Garibaldi had arrived in Paris is denied.

Marshal Bazaine, during the progress of his trial to-day, manifested more agitation than on yesterday.

DUBLIN, Oct. 9.—The Irish Agricultural Laborers Union, in the event of the Government failing to settle the question of waste lands in Ireland, have decided to emigrate to the United States en masse.

New York Items.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—The sixth annual meeting of the Railroad Conductor's Life Insurance Association, has taken place. There were fifty-seven deaths during the year.

Delos E. Culver, of Jersey City, one of the wealthiest capitalists in New Jersey, has been adjudged bankrupt. He was Vice-President of the New York and Oswego Midland Railroad Company. His liabilities are said to reach eight millions.

The colored Republicans have been in session during the day. They resolved to keep up their organizations distinct, instead of merging them with the white Republicans. While indorsing the action of the Republican party, the colored Republicans passed resolutions declaring themselves free to adopt at any time, their own policy in regard to any action or proposed action of the Republican party.

Telegraphic Briefs.

SHREVEPORT, Oct. 9.—The interments yesterday were twelve.

NASHVILLE, Oct. 9.—Churches, Masons and Odd Fellows have sent $7,000 in money and provision to Memphis.

LITTLE ROCK, Oct. 9.—Another heavy frost yesterday morning.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 9.—Patrick McLoughlin, a prominent lawyer, is dead.

SALT LAKE, Oct. 9.—Young has been elected President of the Latter Day Saints.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 9.—The Union National Bank has gone into liquidation: The cause is the scarcity of currency.

The Situation in Memphis.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 9.—There was another heavy frost. Of the 41 interments 31 were of yellow fever. Sister Mary, of Joseph Dominican, formerly Superior St. Agnes Academy, is dead.

Father O'Brien, of St. Peters' Church, is very low.

New York Financial News.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Some banks have virtually resumed currency payment. Bankers report that greenbacks are quite plentiful. It is understood that the National Trust Company has resumed business.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

The Catholic Total Abstinence Union—Sympathy for the Pope—Manager of the Clearing House Heard From.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—The General Convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union to-day passed resolutions of sympathy with the Holy Father at Rome in the many afflictions which he has lately experienced. Also a resolution condemning the action of Germany and Italy in the expulsion of the Jesuits and other religious orders. The Secretary's report showed that the Union is in a flattering condition.

The manager of the Clearing House to-day said that he could not give an opinion as to when there would be a resumption of currency payments, as he was not prepared to admit that banks had suspended currency payments. They have, he says, only refused to pay out legal tenders and checks.

Legal tenders are rapidly increasing in the Banks of the city, and Banks pay all regular, legitimate demands upon them.

The Stokes Trial and Other Items.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—The trial of Stokes was resumed to-day. The challenge of the defence to the entire array of jurors was sustained by the court, but the counsel said that although the challenge was made in good faith and had been sustained, yet rather than delay the trial he would withdraw it. The selection of the jury was then commenced.

Six hundred and forty-four thousand pounds sterling have been received at the United States assay office since Monday.

Gibson, Cosanava & Co., have failed.

The Polaris Investigation.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—The Board of Examiners who investigated the first party from the Polaris, will make an examination into the circumstances of the disasters as will be detailed by the Buddington party, commencing to-morrow.

It is not expected that new facts will be elicited, excepting occurrences after the separation of the Polaris crew. The authorities here do not credit the reports of foul play in the death of Hall.

The Evangelical Alliance—Union of Church and State Discussed.—The Peaceful Waters are Disturbed by a Sudden Squall.

NEW YORK, October 9.—In the Alliance a paper was read on the Church and the Nation, by Rev. W. H. Freeman, of London. He favored the principle that in Christian nations the Church and State are identical, and there could be no alliance between them, for they are not independent powers. He believed that in the future the pulpit will speak more of civil government and law, and legislatures will feel more the influence of religion. The Judges and the magistrates are the true elders of this day, and in the Scriptures the authority of the rulers is more insisted upon than that of the teachers.

Another paper on the influence of Christianity on Civil and Religious Liberty, by Rev. J. L. M. Curry, L. L. D., of Richmond, Va., followed on the same subject. He said: Has not every person a right to worship God free from civil molestation? Liberty is not unrestrained license. It imposed laws and obligations as well as guaranteed privileges. The right of freedom of worship is sacred. When the Church and State are united, the State practically assumes infallibility, abrogates the right to say what shall be the Church, and not unfrequently uses civil officers to enforce religious discipline. Religious liberty was not considered by the framers of our constitution as anything but a right. [Applause.] Religious liberty with us is no longer an experiment, but an established fact, meeting the hearty approval of every religious denomination and political party throughout our broad land. [Loud applause.] The union of the church and State is wrong in principal and injurious in practical operation. [Applause.] The establishment of a union would be an injury to the State. The Church, when thus united, offers a premium upon hypocracy for men to affect religion in order to become sheriff, magistrate, or gain some civil office under such union. A man's right to worship God is not God-given, but a political grace. [Laughter.] A union is wrong to citizens generally. It robs them of their property, for when a government takes from the people more than enough for its legitimate affairs, it commits a wrong. [Applause.] It is a wrong to our holy religion, because it makes christianity depend upon civil power. It disowns the Holy Spirit and seeks other enjoyments of peace.

Mr. Curry had reached a very interesting part of his discourse when the bell called him to order. The audience called loudly for a continuance. Mr. Crook arose and stated that as many invited guests from abroad, entertaining entirely different views were present, he thought it would be discourteous and unchristian to continue the discussion. The speaker's voice was drowned in cries for 'Curry,' 'Curry.' In response to which Curry arose and said, that he abided by the rule of limitation most readily, yet would most emphatically protest against being termed by the chairman as "discourteous or unchristianlike."]An uproar here ensued, and terrific and loud calls of 'Curry,' 'Curry,' accompanied by stamping feet, etc.] In the din the voice of the Chairman struggled to be heard. Finally comparative order was restored, and Mr. Crooks persuaded the vast audience to be considerate. He (Crooks) had been informed by a visiting friend that the discussion was very painful to him, and he (Crooks) doubted not that he agreed with Mr. Curry in his views upon the topic, but in respect for the views of our friends, advises us to cease the discussion. A hymn was then sung. Adjourned.

Officers of the Western Union Telegraph Company.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—The Board of Directors of the Western Union Telegraph Company, elected at the stockholders annual meeting yesterday, met this morning and effected an organization by the election of the following:

President, Wm. Orton; Vice Presidents, A. B. Cornell, Augustus Schell, Norvin Green, George H. Mumford and Harrison Durkee; Executive Committee, Wm. Orton, James H. Banker, Alonzo B. Cornell, Harrison Durkee, Norvin Green, James Harker, Edwin A. Morgan, Augustus Schell, W. K. Thorne, C. Vanderbilt and Frank Work.

Mortuary—A Female Strike.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9.—John L. Redner, an old grain merchant, is dead.

Joel Cook is dead, aged 82 years.

A number of female operatives at the Campbell Mills struck in consequence of a reduction of wages and of five days in the week. The strikers are visiting the other mills with a view to induce a general strike.

It is rumored that Bushong Bros., Reading, Pa., have suspended.

Affairs in Augusta.

AUGUSTA, Oct. 9.—The Banks resumed currency payments. There are heavy receipts of cotton, but money is too scarce to move crops. There was a slight frost throughout this section. About five hundred dollars has been forwarded for the relief of the afflicted of Shreveport and Memphis.

The Spanish War.

MADRID, Oct. 9.—A brisk cannonade was kept up yesterday by the Republican forces beseiging Cartagena. During the day many deserters from insurgent ranks came into the camp of the government troops.

The National squadron is expected to arrive at Cartagena.

Weather Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—For the Southern and Gulf States, northeast to southeast winds, higher temperature and generally clear weather, except for the western gulf coast, where cloudy weather and possibly light rain is probable.

MEDICAL CARD.
Dr. James W. Alston, of Warren county, having removed to this city, respectfully offers his professional services to the citizens. His office for the present will be on the corner of Dawson and Lane streets, nearly opposite St. Augustine Episcopal Church, where he may be always found when not professionally engaged.
All communications left at Carmer's Drug Store will receive prompt attention.

LOCAL BRIEFS—

More soldiers were in the calaboose yesterday.

Overcoats and shawls were at a discount yesterday.

Look out for the big circus procession this morning.

A number of ladies are engaged in decorating Floral Hall.

See the notice of the Commercial National Bank, Petersburg, Va.

See notice of co-partnertship between Messrs. W. H. Dodd and D. B. Avera.

There were but two or three insignificant cases before the Police Court yesterday.

There is a letter in the postoffice addressed to J. D. Parrish, Clayton, N. C., with no stamp on it.

Yesterday a large gang of Penitentiary convicts were at work on the main road leading to the Fair Grounds.

Secretary Fulghum will be on the Fair Grounds this morning at 8 o'clock. Entries can also be made at the office in the city.

Benedicts are now being manufactured so fast by the Parsons and J. P.'s in this locality, that we find it difficult to keep count.

Everybody agrees that the track of the new Fair Grounds is a No. 1. Sheriff Lee and Mr. Royster deserve great credit for its rapid and proper construction.

J. C. Brewster advertises the Cotton King Cooking Stoves, a full stock of lamps, &c. Mr. B. keeps up a full stock in his line, and is a capital workman. Give him a call.

A huge swarm of wasps held high carnival about the steeple of the Salisbury Street Baptist Church yesterday morning. They seemed to be going for each other in the most approved style.

Mr. Henry Walser, of Davidson county, having resigned his position as a member of the Board of Directors for the Insane Asylum, Gov. Caldwell has selected Dr. S. G. Coffin, of Guilford county, to fill the vacancy.

The base-ball match between the Waverly of Goldsboro, and the Pittsboro Club, takes place on the Fair Grounds on Thursday next at 11 o'clock a. m. Mr. Hubert Haywood of the Stonewall Club of Oxford, will act as Umpire.

To-morrow morning at 10 o'clock a special train will leave the depot, at the western terminus of Hargett st., for the new Fair Grounds, for the accommodation of exhibitors at the approaching Fair. Articles for exhibition carried free.

For a beautiful match of mahogany bay coach horses commend us to the pair now owned by Wynne, Yancey & Co., the well known livery stable men of this city. They are regular Kentucky beauties. They will be on exhibition at the coming Fair.

One of the nicest lots of cotton which has been brought to Raleigh this season was that brought yesterday by Tommy Cross, of Chatham county, consisting of seventeen bales, which commanded a ready sale at the top-knot of the market. We understand from a prominent commission merchant that the cotton raised in Chatham is of a very superior quality, and is always equal to the best.

The reader is referred to the advertisement of Messrs. Petty & Jones which appears for the first time in this morning's DAILY NEWS. They offer a truly attractive bill of fare in the shape of one of the most desirable stock of goods ever brought to Raleigh, bought in New York during the late panic at greatly reduced prices. Go to Petty & Jones' for bargains. They are clever and reliable business men.

ELEGANT.—We never saw nicer oysters than we had for tea last evening at the Yarbrough House. It cannot be wondered at when we recollect that the well-known house of G. W. Singleton & Co., Suffolk, Va., supplies the Yarbrough with bivalves.

M. B. L. A.—The 53rd regular meeting of the Mechanics' Building and Loan Association, will be held in the Court House, on Friday evening, the 10th inst., at 7½ o'clock.

Members can pay their dues to the Secretary on or before the day of meeting. Delinquents will be fined.
WM. SIMPSON, Sec.

DECLINES THE INVITATION.—The Committee appointed by the Executive Committee of the State Agricultural Society, to proceed to Washington and invite President Grant to visit the approaching State Fair, have discharged their duty. They returned to this city yesterday afternoon, and reported to Captain R. T. Fulghum, Secretary of the Society, the non-success of their mission. The President received the Committee very courteously, and assigned as a reason for not accepting the invitation the approaching visit of the Evangelical Alliance and his promise to be present at the reunion of the Army of Tennessee, at Toledo. The President regretted much that his engagements prevented his accepting the invitation, and hoped that next year the Society would give him a longer notice. As we before stated, Judge Settle, Colonel I. J. Young and Messrs. T. P. Devereux and F. H. Busbee composed the Committee.

SALISBURY FAIR.

[BY OUR SPECIAL REPORTER.]

The third annual exhibition of the North Western North Carolina Fair Association opened at Salisbury Tuesday last. The exhibition of Lent's Circus on the same day was seriously detrimental to the Fair, and the attendance was very slim on this day. Wednesday the attendance, though not as large as it should have been, was nevertheless creditable. Every preparation had been made by by the energetic Executive Committee and its working Secretary, B. F. Rogers, Esq., to make the Fair in all respects a success, as the large number and character of articles on exhibition will show, but the advent of the Circus, gathering up all the loose change in the country, and the panicky times, which is being felt by the western men, has and will seriously interfere with the pecuniary success of the Fair.

THE FAIR GROUNDS

are beautifully situated in the suburbs of Salisbury, convenient both to the hotels and the Railroad depot, and are well and conveniently arranged. There are four halls, built upon the same plan of those of the old Raleigh Fair Grounds, on the right and left of the gate, and two large stands with raised seats near the race track capable of accommodating about two thousand persons. The track is a half mile in length, generally level (having only one slight grade) and is solid and firm. The stables for stock are poor in structure and not sufficient in number. The same may be said for the hog and sheep pens.

THE EXHIBITION

we thought highly creditable to the farmers and manufacturers of Norwestern Carolina, who deserve great and lasting praise for the interest they manifest in the success of the Association. The show of agricultural implements, principally of plows, castings, mowing and reaping machines, wheat-threshers, corn-shellers, &c., &., of different styles, patterns and manufacturies, was very good.

We never saw larger hogs or better grown pigs at any Fair. A black Berkshire sow with sixteen pigs, one month old, the smallest of which would weigh about fifty pounds, attracted much attention. A pair of fourteen months old Chesters, weighing over four hundred each, were also a good hog show.

The show of cattle was small and rather poor, but the horse and mule exhibition far excelled any previous one of this Fair, and was the most important feature of the occasion.

We saw quite a variety of the domesticated feathered tribe; Dorkins, Shanghaies, Cochin Chinas Frizzlings, ordinary American barn-yard and game chickens, puddle and Muscovy ducks, big geese and tall turkeys, which, upon the whole, made the poultry exhibition a success.

In the hall devoted to the products of the farm, we observed many articles on exhibition deserving of especial mention, but our limited space forbids a special mention. The beets, pumpkins, cabbages, etc., etc., were as large as we generally find them anywhere; oats, wheat, grass seeds, corn, barley, rye and excellent specimens of tobacco grown in McDowell county, together with a large number of other farm products, all of which are justly entitled to a premium, completed the exhibition in this department.

As is usually the case with all well regulated Fairs was the most attractive part of the grounds. It was most beautifully and tastefully decorated by the committee of Salisbury ladies appointed to superintend its arrangements, and the exhibition was very full.

Needle work of every description, from a frizzled baby's dress to a "log cabin" bed-quilt was to be seen and admired; oil paintings, chromos and drawings ornamented the festooned walls; plants, flowers and evergreens added to the general attraction, while the sewing machine men kept all the noise. One sewing machine man had a small steam engine attached to the wheel of his machine, which seemed to do the work with much more ease and regularity than the foot power. It is a good thing, in our opinion, if it will work and won't get on a "bust." A cabinet maker and dealer exhibited a solid black walnut bureau, the prettiest piece of furniture we ever saw, and a parlor ornament in the form of a water fountain, also of black walnut, which were among the principal attractions of Floral Hall. A box of bird eggs, showing two of every North Carolina bird, attracted considerable interest; specimens of cookery in the way of tempting cakes and bread, prepared by ladies of known culinary skill, jellies, jams, preserves and sweetmeats; native wines, cordials, syrups, &c. also added to the attractions of this department.

OUTSIDE OF THE FAIR,

but within the enclosure, we observed among the attractions the "spinning jenny" man who secured the undivided attention of all the boys and many of the older heads. He managed to keep up a continual running, and, in our opinion, made more money than the Fair Association.

The man with the fat woman, big snake, little man, and other monstrosities had his tents spread and, with the aid of his flaming posters, snake music and an endless tongue, raked in a large number of quarters. The 'Ring' man, who has been ruled out of most of the Fairs and should have been out of this, plied his vocation with a zeal and energy worthy of a more honest mode of obtaining a livelihood, and succeded in enticing a large number to throw six rings at the peg-board for a quarter of a dollar with the promise to pay 25 cents for every ring that caught a pin.

THE PRESS

was represented by Mr. Cameron, of the Hillsboro' Recorder, T. B. Kingsbury, of the Raleigh Sentinel, C. F. Harriss, of the Concord Sun, and 'ye local' of the DAILY NEWS, and were kindly looked after by the Secretary, and a room for their own use with tables and writing material provided. For this and many other kindnesses we return our sincere thanks to Mr. Rogers.

So far the Salisbury Fair is a gratifying success, a fact that will doubtless stimulate the good people of this section to renewed energy for a still greater success for the Fair of 1874.

SUPERIOR COURT—THURSDAY Oct. 9th.—The Court met at 10 o'clock, a. m.:

The examination of the witnesses in the case of State against Lizzie Alston and Louisa Alston, charged with larceny, was resumed, and occupied the whole time of the Court, until recess for dinner. Court re-assembled at 3 p. m., and Gen. Cox opened for the State. Messrs. Fowle and Lewis followed for the defence, and Mr. C. M. Busbee closed for the State. The charge of His Honor was brief, and the jury after retiring for a short time, returned a verdict of not guilty.

The following cases have been disposed of, either by nol, pros., discharged on payment of costs, or by aliases taken to other counties:

R. C. Branch, the County Commissioners, Mike Mitchell, B. C. Manly, Percival Purnell, J. R. Byrd, A. R. Dennison, D. C. Barrett, J. L. Harris, Simeon Lunsford, Israel Perry, Jack Ransom, Joe Weaver, W. C. Sorrell, George Penny, Columbus Bridgers, Sarah Pettigrew, Wesley Joyce, Thos. Jones, Colonel Smith, James Allen, Ransom Avery, J. A. Honeycutt, Daniel Baker, Aaron Haliburton, Frank Ferrell, M. A. Bledsoe, Pink Mason, Henry Morgan, Kinchy Ann Edwards, Peyton Moring, Albert Anderson, Barnes Crenshaw.

The following true bills have been found: William Dinkins, forcible trespass; Geo. Thompson, larceny; Bacchas Adams, wilful injury to stock; Annie Yates, Jane Crocker and Eliza Stevens, disorderly house; Fanny King, Becky King and Maggie Toney, affray; Israel Ward, affray; Calvin T. Goodwin, affray; Henry Castleberry, larceny; Kate Graham, larceny; Solomon Buffalo, assault and battery; Royall Cook, assault and battery; Dock Alston, Theo. Taylor, Hilliard Alston and Jacob Edgerton, assault and battery; Henry Campbell, assault and battery; Harriet Whitaker, larceny; Rufus Womble, assault and battery; Henry Swain, larceny; Chiven Hall and Bennett Hester, larceny; James Jeffries, larceny and forcible trespass; Richard Horton, injuring live stock, two indictments; Madison Whitfield, assault and battery; Major Wilkins and Wesley Harris, larceny; Stanford Cole, larceny; Thomas Mitchell and William Evans, affray; Betsy and Catherine Merrick, murder; John W. Scott, assault and battery; George Pearer, larceny; M. A. Bledsoe, unlawful road.

The Grand Jury was discharged this morning until Saturday.

ROSE AND HARRY WATKINS, Raleigh's favorites, will open at Tucker Hall, Monday night, 13th inst., with the great sensational drama, the "New Magdalen," or, "Red Cross of Geneva," sustained by a talented troupe of artists. In speaking of this emotional drama the Norfolk Virginian of the 8th inst., has the following to say, viz:

"A more marked success than that which greeted the first production of this admirable play on Monday evening was never witnessed in this city, and its reproduction this evening should ensure both a full and fashionable attendance. Mr. Harry Watkins' skill as a dramatist has won for him an enviable reputation, both in Europe and America, but he has seldom been more successful than in the present instance. In one respect he has decidedly improved on the story. Wilkie Collins has constructed a very powerful story, but the finale places his heroine in a rather equivocal light, and one that few readers approve of, but the dramatist, by the construction of an entirely different denouement, creates universal sympathy for the "New Magdalen," and so materially strengthens the effect to the great society lesson, which the novelist has sought to inculcate. Rose Watkins as Mercy Merrick has achieved one of the grandest triumphs of her brilliant dramatic career; a career marked by more genuine successes than usually falls to the lot of the greatest actresses. Could the public, whom she has so often charmed, forget her many other admirable assumptions, Rose Watkins might safely base her claim to distinction on this one character. Our readers should not neglect to witness the New Magdalen. Although of a rather sombre nature in its original form, yet Mr. Watkins has introduced an admirable comic element, which affords a most gratifying relief to those who regard a hearty laugh as an undisguised blessing."

CAPT. LINCKE ON THE MUSCLE.—During the past few days not less than 25 United States soldiers have been arrested for drunkenness and disorderly conduct on the streets. They have recently been paid off, and are busily engaged in the laudable task of trying to drink up all the benzine in the place.

About 1 o'clock yesterday morning a party of these soldiers concluded to revenge themselves on Mr. Lincke, captain of the night watch, and coming up with him on one of the remote streets of Eastern ward "went for him." The Captain was in every way equal to the emergency, and waded in with his billy with a vim. In less time than it takes to tell it, three of the soldiers were sprawling in the dust and the rest threw up the sponge. Capt. L. then marched the whole squad to the garrison and turned them over to the keeping of the proper authorities. Bully for the Captain!

"IT NEVER RAINS BUT IT POURS."—The truth of this time-honored adage has been fittingly illustrated by the numerous marriages that have occurred in this city within the last four weeks. One a day is not enough to satisfy the matrimonial ambition of Raleigh; but we have commenced having two or three per diem. The bridal couple whose departure we chronicled yesterday had their example followed on Wednesday evening by Mr. William Allen and Miss Emma Harden, who were joined together in holy wedlock. On yesterday, Thursday morning, Mr. William O. Wolfe and Miss Hattie Watson were made one by Rev. A. W. Mangum, and on the evening of the same day Rev. Dr. Pritchard launched our friend John W. Horton and Miss Martha Amis on the sea of matrimony.

CENTRAL BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.—This Association met in the Baptist Church, in this city, yesterday evening at 4 o'clock p. m. Dr. W. T. Brooks, of Wake Forest, opened the proceedings by reading from the Holy Scriptures, and with prayer. After which,

On motion of Dr. T. H. Pritchard, N. E. Canaday, of Brassfield's Church, was called to the chair, and N. B. Broughton was appointed Secretary.

The churches were called in regular order, when twelve were found to be represented. N. E. Canaday was then elected permanent Moderator, and N. B. Broughton permanent Clerk. Some committees were appointed, and the Association then adjourned. Prayer by Rev. W. S. Purifoy.

The Association will meet this morning at nine o'clock, and adjourn at half-past twelve, and meet again at three o'clock p. m.

The sessions of the Association will no doubt be interesting.

There will be preaching in the Church every night during the sessions of the Association.

COMPLIMENTS OVER THE WIRE.—Capt. R. T. Fulghum, Secretary of the State Agricultural Society, on yesterday sent the following telegram to Salisbury. We hope all of our Western friends will accept the cordial invitation therein contained:

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 9, 1873.

Hon. M. W. Ransom, Salisbury:

The N. C. Agricultural Society sends greeting to the Salisbury Fair. The State Fair promises to be the largest that has ever been held here. Mr. Voorhees will reach here Thursday next. Exhibitors and visitors from the West will receive a hearty welcome.

R. T. FULGHUM,
Secretary.

THE HENDERSON FAIR.—We regret that the crowd in attendance on this Fair yesterday was very much smaller than was expected, and that the number of entries were very small. We had hoped that our Henderson friends would have an exhibition worthy of their well known enterprise and liberality. We learn that the address of Hon. A. S. Merrimon was spoken of in the highest terms. It is said to have been an effort worthy of that gentleman's well known ability. We will have more to say of this matter at a another time.

MARRIED.

WOLF—WATSON.—Married at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. A. W. Mangum, W. O. WOLF, Esq., to Miss HATTIE J. WATSON, all of this city. No cards.

$400 REWARD.
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
Raleigh, October 8th, 1873.
A Proclamation by the Governor.
WHEREAS, official information has been received at this Department that Frank Owens, alias Jenkins, late of the county of Gaston, stands charged with the murder of John W. Cheek, of said county; and that the said Owens has fled the State or so concealed himself that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him:
Now, therefore, I TOD R. CALDWELL, Governor of the State of North Carolina, by virtue of authority in me vested by law, do issue this my proclamation, offering a reward of
for the arrest and delivery of the said F. A. Owens alias Jenkins, to the Sheriff of Gaston county, in the town of Dallas, and I do enjoin all officers of the law and the good citizens of the State to aid in bringing said criminal to justice.
Done at our city of Raleigh, on the eighth day of October, A. D., 1873, and in [L. S.] the ninety-eighth year of American Independence.
TOD R. CALDWELL.
By the Governor:
J. B. NEATHERY, Private Sec. etary.
DESCRIPTION.
Owens is about 25 years old, six feet high, weighs about 165 pounds, fair complexion, dark hair, blue eyes, a long nose and was clean shaven when he left. When he smiles a wrinkle runs across his cheek towards his ear.

THE DAILY NEWS.

JORDAN STONE, Managing Editor.
SAM'L T. WILLIAMS, Political Editor.

FRIDAY.....OCTOBER 10, 1873.

THE Democrats in Ohio are pressing the State canvass with vigor and ability. The venerable ALLEN, the Democratic candidate for Governor, is keeping the Radicals on the defensive, and we would not be surprised to hear of his election. Stranger things have happened.

The trouble with the Petersburg Fair is, that the funds appropriated for the exhibition this Fall were in one of the Banks in that city, which went up under the financial pressure.

Under the circumstances, the managers of the Fair were compelled to suspend their operations.

THE European correspondent of the Piedmont Press says that "a decided interest was manifested by the Austrians as well as other people in the North Carolina exhibition" at Vienna. He thinks our State made a favorable impression. Glad to hear it. We trust something practical may yet result from Prof. Kerr's trip.

THE "Hub" has been recently enlarged. The flourishing towns of Charleston, Brighton and West Roxbury, which were in close proximity, have been added to Boston, by a vote of the citizens of each, and henceforth these three towns will be included under the name and be a part and parcel of the "Hub." This will greatly increase the wealth, population and importance of Massachusetts' capital.

THE Norfolk Landmark, speaking of the Senatorial canvass in the Norfolk District, and of the speech of Maj. DUFFIELD, the Conservative nominee, at Princess Anne Court House, says:

"He has put his foot in the stirrup and shows himself a bold leader."

Then the Major ought to be able to stir up the Conservatives in his District who have been accused of lukewarmness by some of the papers.

THE puns that have been made on Canaan, Connecticut, because Donaldson bursted balloon happened to land there, are too numerous to mention. They all have a sameness, however, that is remarkable. The Happy Land, the Land of Promise, and Happy Canaan, may be mentioned as a sample. In escaping with their lives, the aeronauts ought to be happier than the Connecticut Canaan—notwithstanding what the newspapers may say.

"BURKE," the European correspondent of the Piedmont Press gives the following account of his interview with an ex-Confederate soldier at Bologna:

"From Venice I went to Bologna at night. This latter place I will long remember as the residence of an Italian who served in the Confederate Army and returned to Italy after the war rather than take the oath. He learned, in some way, of the approach of your correspondent and was promptly at the station when the train arrived (2 o'clock at night) and awaked me. I got out and had a good long talk with him—got all needful information about travel in Italy—asked him when he would come to America, &c. He said "look for me when the South is free !"

THE Grand Lodge of Good Templars of Georgia has seceded from the Right Worthy Grand Lodge, because of the action taken by the latter in in the Temperance International Convention at London, upon the negro question. The Grand Lodge of Georgia desires the full co-operation of all the Grand Lodges South. A Southern Convention will probably be called at an early day, to consider the matter. We alluded several days ago to the troubles among the Good Templars, growing out of the action of the London Convention, in reference to a petition sent up by a colored Lodge of Newbern, in this State.

We think it probable that the other Southern States will co-operate with the Good Templars of Georgia.

THE recent telegram from Hon. DANIEL W. VOORHEES to the Secretary of the State Agricultural Society, will remove all doubt in the minds of the skeptical on the subject of his coming on Friday next. He telegrams to Capt. FULGHUM, in response to an inquiry from the latter, that he will certainly be present and speak at the time appointed, unless prevented by Providence.

We refer to the matter again, on account of the impression which seems to prevail in certain quarters, that the gifted and eloquent orator will not come to time.

BREACH of promise marriage suits are as common at the North as they are uncommon at the South. The papers just now are commenting quite freely upon a recent decision of a New York Judge in a suit of the above character. The learned Judge held "that an engagement need not be presumed only by words having passed between the parties, but from a pressure of the hand, or from a stolen kiss, an engagement is consummated, and the damsel has the right if the necessity arises, for suing for breach of promise of marriage."

But his Honor did not tell us how the law was, in case the kiss be not stolen. As "the pressure of the hand" is only a "presumption in law," that presumption, we take it, would be more or less violent in the inverse ratio of the violence of the pressure.

A Capital Take-Off.

"The Financial Crash in Burke," as told by the last Piedmont Press, is decidedly the most humorous burlesque on the money panic that has yet appeared. It will be particularly enjoyed in Burke, where the dramatic personæ are well known and appreciated.

Persons who have been reading the accounts in the papers of the effects of the bank suspensions will be prepared to enjoy the following admirable take-off:

"Great consternation prevailed in the usually quiet town of Morganton, on the morning of the 1st of October, when it began to be whispered about that Burg. Giles, in an attempt to "carry" the price of persimmon beer and ginger-cakes, at the same time had oversized his pile, and would be compelled to suspend. By 12 o'clock the report was confirmed, when his doors were closed. The panic spread like fire. Rumor soon got afloat that the county finances were involved, Giles owing the county a large sum. Then the excitement became intense, and a rush was made for the county Treasurer's office. By 4 o'clock, p. m., the news had reached the South Mountains. Soon a long procession could be seen wending its way into the village with old man Clem. Farr, at its head. Men mounted on horses, mules, oxen, on foot, and in wagons, not unlike the Mardi Gras. The run soon exhausted the County Treasury, and Dr. Laxton, the County Treasurer, being unable to keep order, called the police to his aid and closed doors. The excitement was at its highest. Men nearly frantic could be seen gesticulating wildly and holding high up in the air old ante bellum jury tickets, and demanding money or blood. At the solicitation of the town authorities, Col. W. F. McKewon, threw on the market, a bushel and a half of sub-homestead notes, but this only aggrevated matters. Col. J. W. McEbrath, then very generously put up an old hair trunk full of continental scrip, all to no purpose. A voice in the crowd (Jim Ferree's we learn) called in tones of thunder for W. N. C. Railroad Stock to the rescue.

The Receiver took the responsibility of throwing out two millions, but the financial storm still raged. Just about this time McKenzie's imported Scotch purp hitched some boy's terrier, and created a diversion in favor of the county. As geese saved Rome so it is probable dogs saved Burke county from total ruin. As soon as the crowd moved in the direction of the fight, the County Commissioners held an informal meeting, and decided to send Laws Taylor, to see the Governor, and learn if he would not take the responsibility of using the common school or Lunatic Asylum appropriations, for the relief of the county. It is impossible to give a list of all the failures. No one can yet foresee the final result—we areg lad to see Mazyck is still open.

Morganton, Oct. 4th, 1873.

LATER.

Taylor telegraphs he has interviewed the Executive. The Governor says the Constitution must and shall be preserved—no unconstitutiomol act shall stain his gubernatorial robe—that Burke county went against him last election, and he will see it at the d——l before it shall have a dollar out of the State Treasury. It is deemed prudent not to make public just now, the extent of the failures here, for fear of the effect on surrounding villages.

Clem Farr says if something is not done to restore public and private credit, a man will have to mortgage the "next layin of the setting hen" to buy a half pound of coffee."

Dr. Redfield writes: "While Ames is providing for himself until 1881 you will note that he proposes to give Mississippi a negro Governor. He is the head of the ticket, to be sure, but he cannot be Governor and in the Senate at once, and the consequence is that the negro barber, Davis, candidate for Lieutenant-Governor on the Ames ticket, will be the real Governor of Mississippi. Beautiful prospect! Happy State!"

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher has lately delivered an address before an agricultural fair in New Hampshire, in which, according to a correspondent, he told what he didn't know about farming. He knew enough, however, about other things to receive $200 for his address, and the farmers, who were the principal persons concerned, appear to have been satisfied that they had the worth of their money.

"The bank failures in Petersburg renders it impossible for that enterprising city to hold its annual Fair, says the Appeal & Index. The panic has not and will not, affect our Fair, we are happy to announce. Neither would it affect the Petersburg Fair if the managers were working within their means. The old way of doing business is the best—pay as you go." —Piedmont Press.

It is now definitely settled that the telegraph wires in Germany are no longer to be affixed to poles in the open air, but are to be buried in underground tubes. The lines on which the principle is to be first introduced are those requiring a large number of wires; and those first on the roll are the lines from Berlin to the Rhine, which branches to different points.

The Atlanta, Ga., Herald learns that the entire representation of the Good Templars from all parts of the State, are a unit for secession from the R. W. G. Lodge, because of their recent action in London, which gave the privileges of membership to the negro race.

Mr. R. G. Sneed, of North Carolina, who accepted the challenge of Messrs. Suit, Marshall, and Cross for the trial of hounds in a fox-hunt, has now reduced his offer of a bet from $100,000 to $10,000. on account of "the panic in the money market."

Jas. C. Cloud, the champion rowist, on his great trip from Philadelphia to New Orleans, has reached Vicksburg. At last accounts eighty days out. He has sixty-five days left in which to make the trip from Vicksburg to New Orleans.

The President did not authorize the statement that he had reconsidered his determination to visit Toledo on the occasion of the reunion of the Army of Tennessee. It is expected that he will receive the Evangelical Alliance on the 14th, and leave the same evening for Toledo.

The latest social sensation in Binghampton is the trial now progressing of Rev. Alex. Burroughs, charged with beating his child-wife, aged fourteen.

NEW FIRM, NEW GOODS.

No. 20 Fayetteville Street,

RALEIGH, N. C.

We announce with pleasure to our friends, patrons and the public that we have repaired and fitted up the store recently occupied by the late firm of Primrose, Petty & Newsom, and are now offering, at the lowest possible prices, one of the best and most carefully selected stocks of the latest styles of Foreign and Domestic Dry Goods

ever offered in this market. We have all qualities of the new and leading styles and colors of dress goods for Ladies, Children and Misses wear; also a very large assortment of

Cloths, Cassimeres and Jeans, for men and boys wear, and a complete stock of

Boots,
Shoes,
Hats,
Caps,
Notions,

of all sorts. Our goods were bought during the recent panic in New York by our Senior partner, when we were enabled, purchasing for cash, to buy goods at much less than their real value, therefore all wishing to purchase any article in our line, will find our goods offered as low as they can be bought North or South.

We offer great inducements to merchants. As most of our goods were bought by the case, we sell as low as northern jobbers. We have NO OLD GOODS in our house, everything is ENTIRELY NEW.

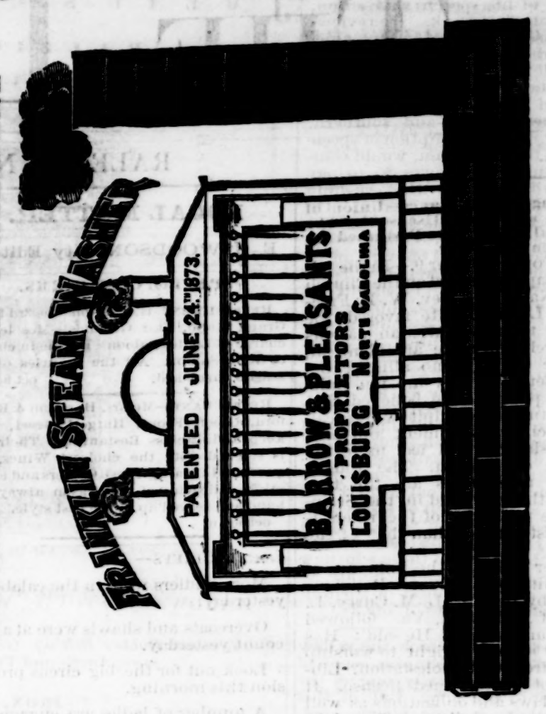
$10 GREATEST INVENTION OF THE AGE. $10

THE VERY LATEST IMPROVEMENT.



PATENTED JUNE 24TH, 1873.

Satisfaction Guaranteed in Every Instance.

OTHER MACHINES HAVE THEIR PECULIAR MERITS—THIS HAS NO DEFECT.

The Washing of a Family of Ordinary size Easily Accomplished before Breakfast!

Have Never Known One That Failed to Give Satisfaction!

No other Machine can be sold after the "FRANKLIN" has been Tried.

From One to Two Thousand Dollars a Year Guaranteed to Working Men!

Every County Sold in Which it has been Introduced.

WE CHALLENGE THE WORLD TO COMPETE WITH IT!!!

The inventor of the "FRANKLIN STEAM WASHER" was owner of the right to manufacture the "Improved" Woman's Friend in certain territory. While manufacturing these machines, and watching attentively their action and the manner in which they operated, and the results, he discovered certain prominent defects therein. He spent ten months in the study of the subject of finding remedies for these defects. He has at last succeeded—and as the result of his investigation and study, he offers to the public the "FRANKLIN STEAM WASHER," which is by far the best Washing Machine ever patented. We claim as an evidence of its merit that "LETTERS PATENT" were granted over all others.

It will wash anything from a Lace Collar to a Bed Blanket. It will cleanse the clothing without tearing and more thoroughly than can possibly be done by hand labor or the use of the rubbing board. With one-fourth of the labor four times as much can be done in the same length of time as can be done by hand. We could publish columns of certificates of its worth from those who have used it, but for the present we prefer the WASHER to speak for itself. We give a few below:

Messrs, BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, September 27th, 1873.

GENTLEMEN:—Mrs. Davis has tried the "FRANKLIN STEAM WASHER" and instructs me to say, in reply to your enquiry, that she is well pleased with it, and believes it to be all that you claim for it as a labor saving Machine. It does its work well and diminishes, by more than half, the labor of washing. She cheerfully recommends it.

JOSEPH J. DAVIS.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, September 10th, 1873.

GENTLEMEN:—Before purchasing your Steam Washer, I paid four dollars per month for our family washing; now without any additional help, I have the washing done at home and pay fifty cents a week to have the ironing done. In this way I save $2 per month, and my clothes are much whiter, and I am satisfied, will last much longer than when washed by rubbing or the use of a board. It is all that you recommend it to be.

Very respectfully, Mrs. C. M. COOKE.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, September 11th, 1873.

GENTLEMEN:—I am using your Steam Washer, and it proves a success and I take pleasure in recommending it to the public, and testify to its being all that you represent it to be. Very respectfully, Mrs. P. B. HAWKINS.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, September 8th, 1873.

GENTLEMEN:—I have been using your Franklin Steam Washer for some time and can safely say is far the best I ever saw. I cannot do without it. Mrs. A. W. WILSON.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, FRANKLINTON, September 9th, 1873

SIRS—Mrs. Gibbons has been using your "Franklin Steam Washer" for two weeks and pronounces it a grand success. Rev. H. H. GIBBONS.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, August 4th, 1873.

GENTLEMEN:—I take pleasure in recommending your "Steam Washer." I acknowledge myself to have been incredulous with regard to yours, after having tested several others that had been as highly recommended to me; but the inconvenience to a large family, of not being able to get a good washer, regularly, induced me to give yours a trial. I am gratified to pronounce it a perfect success. I used it according to directions, and did two week's washing in two hours, nor did I give the first RUB. Whiter or more nicely washed clothes, I have never had. It only needs a trial to convince.

Respectfully, Mrs. W. H. FURMAN.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, July 12th, 1873.

GENTLEMEN:—Through the kindness of your agent, Mr. J. J. Person, I have tried your "Steam Washer," and find it by far the best I ever used. It certainly saves a great deal of hard labor and does not damage the clothes. It is all that you recommend.

Respectfully, Mrs. Dr. J. B CLIFTON.

Messrs BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, June 30th, 1873.

DEAR SIRS:—I take pleasure in testifying, that I have used your "Steam Washer," with perfect success, and find it by far the most speedy and effectual mode of cleansing all kinds of fabrics I have ever known,

Very truly, Mrs. Dr. W. R. KING.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUILBURG, August 5th, 1873.

GENTLEMEN:—My wife has been using the "Franklin Steam Washer" for some time and she, as well as the washerwoman, are highly pleased with it.

Very truly, ELLIS MALONE, M. D.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, July 3rd, 1873.

GENTLEEN:—I have used the "Steam Washer" I purchased of your agent, Mr. J. J. Person, and find that it will do more than you recommend. We are more than pleased with it. Respectfully, S. E. COOK.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, July 30th, 1874.

SIRS:—I take pleasure in recommending your "Steam Washer." It is a complete success. My clothes are whiter than ever before, and that without labor. A very short while with the "Washer" will save a hard days washing.

Yours truly, Mrs. T. C. HORTON.

Messrs, BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, July 24th, 1873.

GENTLEMEN:—I have been using the "Steam Washer" about one month. It surpasses my expectations; it is all that you say for it. I am highly pleased.

Yours truly, Mrs. T. A. PERSON.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, WARREN COUNTY, Sept. 15, 1873.

GENTLEMEN:—I have tried your Steam Washer, and find it an admirable success I cheerfully recommend it to all.

Respectfully, Mrs. Dr. GEO. FIELD.

Messrs BARROW & PLEASANTS, FRANKLIN COUNTY, Sept. 3, 1873.

GENTLEMEN:—I have used your Steam Washer with perfect success I find it a great saving of the clothes, time and labor and more than half the soap.

Respectfully, Mrs. J. B. LITTLEJOHN.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, SHADY GROVE, Warren County, Oct. 1, 1873.

GENTLEMEN:—I have tested the Franklin Steam Washer, sold in this county by Mr. G. F. Littlejohn, and find it a perfect success, and I recommend it to everybody.

Yours with respect, Mrs. J. A. WILLIAMS.

OURSELVES AS OTHERS SEE US:

"We take pleasure in saying that the "Franklin Steam Washer" is all that its proprietors claim it—a complete success. We hazard nothing in saying that nothing has ever been put upon the market that meets with such universal favor. We are yet to hear of the first one that does not give entire satisfaction.—Louisburg Courier.

"It is meeting with universal and unprecedented favor among domestic circles."—Rocky Mount Mail.

"Messrs. Barrow and Pleasants constitute one of the strongest and most reliable firms in Louisburg, and from what we have heard of the "Franklin Steam Washer" and the high character of the parties controling it, we have no doubt but that it is all that they represent it to be."—Biblical Recorder.

"The patentees claim for the "Franklin Steam Washer" a superiority over all others, and from the description we have had of its workings, we believe its claims are well founded."—Christian Advocate.

"We have known Messrs. Barrow and Pleasants from "our youth up," and know they would not recommend anything unworthy of patronage. They are leading merchants in Louisburg."—Asheville Citizen.

We have acquired by purchase of the Patentee, Mr. S. W. Bartholomew, the sole right to manufacture and to sell the right to manufacture the "Franklin Steam Washer" within the United States and Territories.

We now offer the "Franklin Steam Washer" to the American people with full confidence that it will do all that we claim for it, and in order to introduce it as rapidly as possible, we are offering great inducements to working men who want to make money: we will sell State or County rights on very reasonable terms; for instance, we will sell the right to a county with ten thousand inhabitants for one hundred dollars. Within twelve months, if properly managed, the person can sell from three to five hundred Washers, at a profit of five dollars each, and his right will be worth more at the expiration of that time than it was at first, from the fact that it has been introduced and will sell in almost every family.

To parties wishing to buy State or county rights, we will, send, on receipt of five dollars, just one-half of the retail price, the "Franklin Steam Washer" complete, with instructions how to use, &c.; and after satisfying themselves that it is what we recommend it to be, they can correspond with us in regard to territory wanted, our terms &c. We desire a good reliable General Agent in every State in the Union, and we invite correspondence with workingmen who would like to make money. None need apply who cannot furnish satisfactory evidence of their integrity and reliability.

Any tinner can make the "Washer," or parties buying county rights, can obtain them through us at cost.

All persons are warned against manufacturing or selling the "Franklin Steam Washer" without authority from us. Any person infringing upon our rights in this matter will be prosecuted.

☞Our Mr. PLEASANTS will have rooms at the Yarborough House during Fair week and will give any information desired.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

We are well acquainted with Messrs. Barrow & Pleasants; as merchants they are doing a leading Business in their town. They are men of strict integrity and in every way reliable and responsible. They do what they engage to do.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

BILLOUS.—If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, despondent, have frequent headache, mouth tastes badly in morning, irregular appetite, coated tongue, coated, coming sufferer from chronic constipation, take a dose of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and see how quickly it will relieve and cure. Leaving the liver strengthened and healthy. Sold by all first-class druggists.

How unnecessary the anguish many persons undergo from rheumatism, gout, neuralgia, toothache and earache. We say unnecessary because the application of Mexican Mustang Liniment to the affected part, even a few drops of it in the ears or tooth, affords instantaneous ease and what is better, permanent relief. For cuts wounds, bruises, swellings, and all injuries or pains in cases which require the aid of external remedies this Liniment is everywhere regarded as the most prudent and reliable healing agent in existence. For all external injuries or ailments of horses and cattle, it is invaluable.

Hon. HENRY POTTER, late Judge of the United States Court for the District of North Carolina gave the following as his opinion of Beck with's Pills:

"For some ten or twelve years I have been in the habit of using DR. BECKWITH'S ANTI-DYSPEPTIC PILLS in my family, and consider them so valuable as a domestic medicine, that I never suffer my stock to be exhausted. I have used them with good effect in dyspeptic cases, under various modifications, and have found them efficacious in relieving from sick headache, and from all the usual symptoms of functional derangement of the viscera. As an apperient, they are excellent. I have long had the pleasure of an intimate acquaintance with the inventor of these Pills. He is a gentleman of talents, integrity and worth, and he ranks high in the science of medicine and the healing art.

H. POTTER."

FRIDAY.....OCTOBER 10, 1873.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Coal is $9.50 per ton in Wilmington.

The hog cholera rages in Burke county.

Highwaymen are at work in Caldwell county.

A laundry is a new enterprise in Greensboro.

Charlotte has a lodge of Cadets of Temperance.

The railroad tax was carried in Buncombe county.

A revival is going on in the M. E. Church at Weldon.

Matamuskeet apples are plentiful in the Newbern market.

The Skiff & Gaylord Minstrels had small houses in Wilmington.

The Charlotte Observer of the 8th inst., reports the "first frost of the season" on Tuesday.

The members of the M. E. Church at Weldon, hold a Fair and Feast on the 29th and 30th insts.

A good deal of sickness is reported in the Scotland Neck section. So says the Roanoke News.

Mr. James Williford had his pocket picked to the tune of $16 the day the circus was at Whitakers.

Gen. Braxton Bragg has been elected Engineer and Superintendent of the Wilmington Water Works.

The stable of Mr. Burr Higgins, at Fisher Hill, Guilford county, was destroyed by fire on Saturday night.

The question of colored people occupying seats in the parquette of the Opera House still agitates Wilmington.

On and after the 12th, the trains on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad now due at 4 p. m., will arrive at 3:30 p. m.

O. J. Carroll has resigned the Mayoralty of Magnolia and Major J. S. Hines has been appointed to fill the vacancy pro. tem.

A negro by the name of Edwards, attempted to burglarize a store in Sampson county recently, and was captured and put in jail.

The bridge over Smith's Creek, near Wilmington, caved in on Tuesday, precipitating some cattle into the water. None were drowned.

Mr. Alex. Sprunt, wife and daughter, S. N. Martin, W. G. McRae and Hugh McRae, Wilmingtonians, arrived in New York the other day from Europe.

Says the Wilmington Journal of the 8th inst: 'A gentleman living about thirteen miles from this city, on the Carolina Central Railway, says there was a very slight fall of snow at that point early yesterday morning. It was certainly almost cold enough for it here."

Says the Greensboro Patriot of the 8th:

"There will be about thirty or more Cherokee Indians here this week, who appear before the Federal Court in the case of the United States vs. J. G. Blount, J. T. Dewese and others, charged with conspiracy against the Cherokees."

Says the Peidmont Press:

"We are informed by Mr. N. A. Powell, that "old Whitey," the celebrated war horse that carried the conqueror of Mexico, through nearly all his campaigns, was a native of Caldwell county, was bred by Mr. Greenway, in two miles of Lenoir. John Tucker took him out to Cherokee, and happening to meet General Taylor, who was there on some Indian business, they struck a trade. Some of "old Whitey's" relations still live in Caldwell, following agricultural pursuits."

The Petersburg (Va.) Index and Appeal has the following in regard to the Roanoke and Tar River Agricultural Fair:

"The fourth annual Fair of this Society begins at Weldon, N. C., on Tuesday, the 28th inst., and continues four days. We learn that the prospects of the Society were never more flattering—everything bespeaking an exhibition this year, in every way superior to any heretofore had. Many of our people are preparing to send articles for exhibition, and to represent their respective houses in person. This is as it should be, for Petersburg derives a good share of its support from North Carolina, and it is but right that we should recognize it by a liberal support of this commendable enterprise.

"The society has only been in existence four years, yet in that short time it has reached a point of prosperity that places it in the front rank among agricultural fairs. The attendance and exhibition have each year been very creditable, but from the efforts in its behalf in our city, we are led to believe that the fourth annual fair will be a credit to its friends and an honor to North Carolina.

"The financial panic has not affected the interest of the society in any way. The fair will certainly take place as announced, and we hope to see all of our merchants and mechanics as well as the fair daughters of our city represented. Articles for exibition will be transported free, and the fare to go and return will be only one dollar; and ample preparations will be made to accommodate all who may attend.

SEIZURE OF A PETTICOAT SMUGGLER—SIX THOUSAND DOLLARS' WORTH OF GOODS UNDER A HOOP-SKIRT.—On Friday afternoon Customs Inspector Chapman, at Castle Garden, noticed that one of the steerage passengers, a woman, who was stepping ashore, had a very peculiar and bulky form and embarrassed gait. She was taken by his order into the female searcher's room, when it was discovered that under her dress was concealed a large amount of jewelry, comprising watches and trinkets. The underclothing, it is alleged, with its appurtenances, weighed upwards of one hundred pounds. Her luggage was found to be filled with dutiable goods, and was accordingly seized. A colleague of hers in the smuggling enterprise was also arrested, and turned out to be her nephew—viz., Matthew Weidemann, who does business at Philadelphia and is a resident there. The aunt, who also dwells in the City of Brotherly Love, said her name was Catharine Jasper. They offered Customs Officer Chapman a bribe of $100 after their arrest to pass them inside the Castle Garden rotunda. The officer took the money, and instead of pocketing it paid it into the custom-house last night. The amount of smuggled goods captured is valued at $6,000.—New York Herald, 3rd.

SENATOR THURMAN ON SPECIE RESUMPTION.—Senator Thurman, of Ohio, made the financial situation a large part of his speech at Kenton, in that State, last week. He reviewed the causes which led to the panic, and then discussed the remedies proposed. He divided the country into creditor States—New York, Pennsylvania, and New England, and debtor States—the western and southern. The effect of the resumption of specie payment, in his opinion, would compel every man who owes $5 to pay $6, and would have a most crushing effect upon the debtor States. On this subject he continued: "I do not believe that the business of the country can ever be carried on with an irredeemable paper currency. I believe that to do so would result in the destruction of the best interests of the country. But I do now say to you that, in my judgment, it would be most unwise for the United States to yield to this clamor of the creditor States, and undertake in the forthcoming Congress, which meets next December, to force a resumption of specie payment upon the country without delay. I shall go to Congress next December, if God spares my life, determined that while I will advocate a resumption of specie payment as soon as it can reasonably be effected, I will not crush the debtor class for the benefit of those who now are their creditors, and who are already in easy, and most of them in affluent circumstances of life."

The district in which the yellow fever broke out in Memphis is one of the highest and usually one of the healthiest in the city. But in this section there is one plague spot, called in what seems now ghastly derision, "Happy Hollow." The river covers it at flood, the drainage of the upper town flows through it, shanties occupy its oozy, damp surface, and children, pigs, poultry, and goats, huddle together in admirable variety and confusion. In this spot, it is supposed, the fever originated, and soon had its grasp of death upon the more prosperous and cleanlier heights above. And in all this report of yellow fever we find amid it dirt, dirt, everywhere—places like this "Happy Hollow," breeding it—carcasses of cattle out in the river, as at Shreveport, rotting in the hot sun, breeding it—filthy city streets and low, malarious, slimy river banks breeding it. Yellow fever at Shreveport and Memphis has been but the child of filth and neglect. Listen to the Shreveport Times:

"Under the present city administration, Shreveport became the dirtiest town in America; portions of it were almost uninhabitable. If gutters filled with rotten matter; if dirt and filth and revolting stenches in every street and alley can affect the health of a people, here is a rich field, we repeat, for a committee to investigate.

SUBMISSION OF FATHER O'KEIFFE.—The Dublin Evening Post says that Father O'Keiffe on Saturday last went freely to Kilkenny, sought an interview with his Bishop, and fully and unreservedly tendered his submission to episcopal jurisdiction. In testimony of the earnestness of his submission, Father O'Keiffe announced that he would not celebrate the customary mass on the following day or officiate in any way publicly in church. The intelligence, the Post says, will be received with joy not only by every Catholic in Ireland, but by every Catholic throughout the world.

BRIGHAM YOUNG'S CAMP.—The forty-third semi-annual conference of the Church of the Latter-Day Saints assembled at Salt Lake on Monday last. The attendance was large. Brigham Young and others addressed the congregation. Eighteen missionaries were sent to Europe and four to the Sandwich Islands. Brigham Young has again been elected president of Zion's Church Co-operative Institution. The report of the officers shows a large business—about $70,000 above liabilities.

The Mennonite prospectors who were in this countsy in the early part of last summer, submitted, on their return to Russia, an exhaustive report on the Western States of the Union. Among the recommendations to their people they report in favor of Texas for cattle raising, Kansas for growing of fruit, and Minnesota for the cultivation of wheat. Some of these Mennonite agents are still wandering about through the Northwest, looking for good lands to colonize.

And a very large variety of Low Price Dress Goods. My stock of Cassimeres, Piece Goods, Hats, Caps, Boots and Shoes is extraordinarily large and complete, and you would be doing yourselves injustice if you were not to examine it before purchasing elsewhere.

THESE 2ND AND THIRD FLOORS are almost exclusively devoted to both being filled to their utmost capacity with

GOODS OF EVERY DESCRIPTION

to supply the Trade, and Country Merchants would find it to their interest to give my stock a thorough examination before making their purchases, as I think I can offer rare bargains and special inducements. With

A Corps of Experienced Salesmen, ever ready to assist, I can sell, do sell, and will continue to sell as

CHEAP AS THE CHEAPEST.

No house in Raleigh can or shall undersell me, it matters not whether the goods are purchased in Europe or the United States, and for these important reasons:

1st. I am alone, and have no two or three partners to divide my profits with.

2nd. I have leased my store house at a mere nominal cost.

3d. I belive in the great principle of LIVE AND LET LIVE—QUICK SALES and SMALL PROFITS.

4th. I have large experience, buy at the lowest INSIDE figures, and with the best facilities.

EXPERIENCE, the best of teachers, has long since informed the people that is the place to buy their goods, and as heretofore I shall always Represent Goods as They Are.

Returning thanks for past favors, I hope to secure your patronage in the future.

Respectfully yours,

GREAT RUSH FOR BARGAINS

AT

ZACHARIAS & CO'S.

LOW PRICES WILL WIN.

The great rush for our new styles of Fall and Winter dress goods, which has created much excitement in the neighborhood of our New Store on Fayetteville street, continues. The goods are bought by at auction, especially for this market, and upon the principle that "a nimble sixpence is better than a slow shilling," we mark them so low that the people naturally get excited, and the "Rush" is what would reasonably be expected.

The enlargement and extension of our new store are now complete, and we are enabled to offer better bargains than ever before.

LADIES DRESS GOODS

of every conceivable style and pattern. Prints, Domestics, Plaids, Checks, Stripes, &c., at the same old low prices. Tweeds, Cassimeres, Vestings, &c., of foreign and domestic manufacture.

Yankee Notions, an endless variety, at strictly Yankee prices.

Boots and Shoes of the best Northern and Eastern manufacture, ladies', misses', childrens' and infants' sizes; also boys' youths' and gentlemens. In this department the stock is complete, and we guarantee satisfaction.

Hats and Caps, latest styles, for Boys and Gentlemen. In the

Ready-made Clothing Department

we make a specialty of goods of our own manufacture. The largest and most attractive stock in the city, and 20 per cent. under the market.

Gents' furnishing goods, in every variety. Gents' underware of every description, sold cheaper than the cheapest.

In short, everything in the way of general merchandise, and sold at BOTTOM PRICES. Remember the name and place.

CHANGED.

LONGFELLOW.

From the outskirts of the town,
Where old the milestone stood,
Now a stranger, looking down
I behold the shadowy crown
Of the dark and haunted wood.

Is it changed, or am I changed?
Ah! the oaks are fresh and green,
But the friends with whom I ranged
Through their thickets are estranged
By the years that intervene.

Bright as ever flows the sea,
Bright as ever shines the sun,
But alas! they seem to me
Not the sun that used to be,
Not the tides that used to run.

Fall and Winter Fashion Notes.

Imported serge suits are made with demipolonaises and simply trimmed skirts.

Self-colored striped serges are shown for polonaises, and cost from 70 cents to $1.25.

The fancy for twilled goods has restored serges to favor, and they are brought out in variety.

Camel's hair serge, in imitation of this, but itself an excellent fabric, is rougher than that used last year, and costs $2.25.

Rough-surfaced camel's hair is now the accepted fabric for redingotes and wraps, just as cashmere has been for the last four winters.

Chamois is a heavy but loosely woven flannel-like stuff, with the shaggy fleece of camel's hair and a Chevoit stripe; the price is from $4 to $5.

Basques now have the wide English back formed of four broad pieces of the same width at the waist, and the waist is not defined by buttons.

The camel's-hair felt is new this season, and far thicker than any kindred fabric worn last year. It is a yard and a quarter wide, at $4 a yard.

The English serges, all wool, yet harsh to the touch, in twills open wide, cost from 70 cents to $1.50 a yard, and are excellent for serviceable suits.

Camel's-hair diagonal, very fine and soft, is woven in the broad vertical lines raised above the surface in the style so conspicuous this season; this is $4 a yard.

The most tastefully made black alpacas are without flounces this season. The skirt has five or six bias bands (piped on each edge) placed straight around it, and these are crossed at intervals of nearly half a yard by diagonal bands of the same width and piping.

The alleged discovery of the site of Troy by Dr. Schliemann has led to a spirited controversy. It is acknowledged that the ancient city found by him is not the traditional site of Troy. It is also said that the latter was so effectually destroyed that it would be impossible to identify its remains. On the other hand, that Dr. Schliemann unearthed some old city long buried and forgotten, is undoubted. Near it also the source of a river, supposed to be the Scamander, can be traced. Walls like the massive walls of Troy still remain. Amphore, goblets, jewelry, antique vases, curious relics of pottery, and the household utensils of a people of great antiquity have been obtained. The sites of three different cities can plainly be traced, and one at least of these cities suffered everely from fire. Whether it is the Troy of Homer, or some city unknown, Dr. Schliemann deserves great credit for his perseverance and research, and his name will be coupled hereafter with Layard, Botta, and others.

The Detroit Free Press tells this: A boy about twelve years old, whose father was in the Central station for drunkenness, called yesterday and asked permission to "see dad." When the father came to the grated door, the son exclaimed: Didn't I advise ye and warn ye to let whiskey alone. The father made no reply, and the boy continued: Remember now, this is the last time I'll keep you from going up. Here's ten dollars, and I'll be down in the morning and see if the judge won't square up for that."

Who can read without emotion the story of two little girls in Green Bay, Wisconsin? The eldest was seven years of age, the youngest only five. A drunken father left them alone in their room for six days, with only a small loaf of bread for food. When the children were found, the eldest sister was nearly dead, having refused to eat the bread so that her little sister might not suffer. We hear a great deal of heroines. Does history furnish an example equal to this?

The great exposition at Cincinnati closed on Saturday last. At a meeting of the guarantors, held on Thursday, it was stated that the exposition had cleared $15,000, and subscriptions were opened for the exposition of 1874, when $80,000 were immediately subscribed, and a general committee appointed on subscriptions. $250,000 is needed for the next exposition.

CARMER'S

Carolina Baking Powders,

You should use the "Carolina Baking Powders" because there is no other that gives such satisfaction. It makes charming Bread, Delicious Rolls, Cakes, Biscuits, Waffles, Corn Bread, Griddle Irons, Pastry and Cakes of every variety. For making Buckwheat Cakes it has no rival.

Those that have tried it, say it is decidedly the VERY BEST. Feeling considerably flattered at the increasing demand where put in competition to so many kinds now on the market, that I shall in future manufacture it on a much greater scale.

It is the only Baking Powder manufactured in the South, and I guarantee it to give as much satisfaction as any other.
